

Anti-Federalist Papers No. 3

1. What is the pen name used for this essay?

2. The author states there are two different types of government (“modes by which men are connected in society”), what are they?

3. The author says that America wishes to make a noise in the world, and that our feelings are hurt for what reason?

4. The author states that the surest record of the people’s happiness is what?

5. How does he describe history?

6. Does the author believe that his fellow citizens are capable of self-governance?

7. According to the author, with a national government, deep-rooted disputes between states would result in what happening?

8. The author does not believe that a national government will prevent what? Nor secure the nation from?

9. According to the writer, what would be a drawback to having an overgrown, luxurious capital?

10. He argues that with small independent states, what could the people do if the leader of one of them became a despot?

Answer Key:

1. A Farmer
2. National or Confederacy (or League)
3. Europeans are not as attentive to America in peace as they were in war
4. The silence of historians
5. A disgusting and painful detail of the butcheries of conquerors and the woeful calamities of the conquered.
6. No
7. Part of the empire must be injured.
8. The influence or dangers of foreign intrigue; invasion
9. It would become a lure to the enterprising ambitious
10. Run away and leave despotism to wreak vengeance n itself.